Brazilian Barbecue & Beyond

Synopsis

Bem vindo! "welcome to the Brazilian table, filled with tropical açaí, banana, and coconut; tasty snacks like pão de queijo (cheesy dough balls); new-style twists on traditional favorites like the meat-and-bean stew feijoada and the shrimp and lobster curry moqueca, plus other unique culinary delights. From fruit-packed breakfasts to classic barbecue, cachaça-based cocktails, colorful sides, and luscious desserts, this is modern Brazilian food as you've never seen it before!

Customer Reviews

A shared passion for Brazilian food and casual eating led restaurateurs David Pontê, who was born in Rio, and Jamie Barber to open three branches of Cabana in London, with more restaurants in the pipeline. Lizzy Barber, Jamie's sister and Cabana sales and marketing director, is the wordsmith of this exciting new cookbook. All three authors live in London.

Great recipes. I never know Brazilian food - but these recipes make me want to visit the country and eat more! Everyone who likes good food should get this. Pay particular attention to the MEATS section.

Not all ingredients are available in parts of the US. Alternatives would have been welcome.

Great recipes.

very well illustrated with excellent recipes.

they have this rotisserie chicken recipe that i travel to brazil to go get.
