Customer Reviews

I love the Dover bookmark series. It's a cheap and easy way to get a ton of bookmarks quick. Why spend two dollars for a single bookmark when you can get twelve for the same price? I do trim the perforated edges with scissors so that they stick in the spine of books, but other than those few minutes of work, these could not be easier to disassemble and use. I love the butterfly design as well. It's colorful, bright, and I use the printed side as an indicator of where I left off in the book--turning the design toward the page I last read.

These butterfly bookmarks are all very pretty and each one is different. For the price they are absolutely great, but they are certainly not high quality book marks. They come in book form, and you need to de-staple them and tear at perforated lines to separate them. This means that each bookmark has at least one rough edge, and many have two rough edges, from the perforation. If you are like me and you read a lot and lose a lot of bookmarks, this is a great product. If you want something that is nice I would spend a little more and get a product that looks finished.

These bookmarks are beautiful!

My 6 year old just started reading and sometimes likes to read several books at one time. She loves butterflies so these are perfect for her. They are a mid-grade card stock and you seriously can't beat this price.

These are really cute. They come in a little book and tear out. Each bookmark is perfect for a paperback. Also, each bookmark is really pretty with different butterflies on each one. I was looking for bookmarks for paperbacks and these work wonderfully.

very nice bookmarks....
