BRIDGET MOYNAHAN plays Erin Reagan on CBS' Blue Bloods. Moynahan's film credits include I, Robot and The Sum Of All Fears, and she portrayed Carrie's rival and Mr. Big's wife on Sex And The City. Born in Binghamton, New York, Moynahan now lives in NYC and LA. WENDY HOWARD GOLDBERG is the bestselling co-author of two books, Marry Me and Hollywood Moms. Wife of Leonard Goldberg, executive producer of Blue Bloods, Wendy is also the founder of a performing arts summer school in California.

This is the second book I've reviewed in which the dietary preferences of one Tom Selleck are discussed. I suspect Larry Manetti's chicken cacciatore recipe, described in Aloha Magnum: Larry Manetti's Magnum, P.I. Memories as a Selleck favorite, would go great with Bridget Moynahan's bruschetta with tomatoes and basil appetizer and green beans almondine side – even if Tom himself would never touch the vegetables. The gathering of the Reagan family around the dinner table is one of the centerpieces of the Blue Bloods show, and that idea of families uniting around food is the driving idea Moynahan and coauthor Wendy Howard Goldberg brought to this cookbook, too. Blue Bloods is not a show that's raved about by the critics, but it's solid, well written and well acted, and beloved by its many fans. The recipes in this book are kind of like that. Not haute cuisine, but solid, hearty favorites that families can make together, enjoy together, and share with others. And did I mention they're good? Some cookbooks, like say Mimi Thorisson's A Kitchen in France: A Year of Cooking in My Farmhouse, almost qualify as escapist literature: You know you'll never live her life, even approximately, but maybe you can make some of her food. The Blue Bloods Cookbook is just the opposite: connected to a fictional family in a fictional setting, but real, down-to-earth food for the life you live. The James Beard folks may never give this a second look, but it seems like a lot of families are ... and will, I hope, enjoy many great dinners together as a result.

Very nice quality cover and paper, and beautiful pictures. I'm eager to make some of the recipes. Even if a dish has ingredients I don't care for, I can use the recipe as a base and simply make it using other ingredients. For instance, the Swedish Meat Balls. I don't eat beef, but still eat chicken. I read a few recipes nearly every day. The little tidbits about the show, the cast and the family dinners are very enjoyable.

I love this cookbook. I made the Swedish Meatballs last weekend and the Spaghetti and meatballs with the Mom's sauce this weekend. It is the best cookbook ever. I love Blue Bloods and this is so great they came out with the cookbook that reflects all of the events that happens on the show. Thank you so much for a wonderful cookbook.

Gift for my mother who adores the Blue Bloods show and also loves to cook. She said she loves it!!!

Wonderful! The chocolate chip cookies are the best I have ever baked!

I am a fan of Blue Bloods and love the recipes in the cookbook . Not only has our family enjoyed the meals, but we have enjoyed the stories behind them ...

We love the show and they are always eating Sunday dinner together, so I decided to order the book. I have made several recipes and they have been fantastic!

A nice, expectedly traditional cookbook. The only disappointment is that ad copy implied greater framing of meals/menus within the shows on which they appeared. I'm giving this to a family with a background in law enforcement. They should enjoy it even though both adults are experienced cooks.
