Fountains 101 [Paperback] By Suzanne McNeill

Synopsis

Communion with nature is often difficult in our fast-paced, technology filled world. Most of us need the ease communing with nature can provide but have little time to be outdoors. With a flowing fountain, we can bring a bit of the natural world inside. The sound of moving water masks irritating noises, provides an antidote to sensory overload and acts as an aid to relaxation. A simple fountain can mimic the ripple of waves on a lake shore, the sound of surf at the beach or the trickle of a stream over time worn stones and bring a sense of peace. In this book you will find hundreds of ways to bring the fountain into your home or garden.
