I recommend this product to guys in there 20's and 30's. The only dislike I have is the interpretation of the scripture where Jesus is talking to Peter and he says, "On this rock I will build my church." On the CD they call Peter that "rock" which is a common misinterpretation that has to be resolved by looking at the original language. It's common but impactful. Other than that I thought it was pretty well done. I bought it for my fiance.

I purchased this for my brother for Father's Day and he really enjoys the messages! It is a great way to start your day and ideal for those with a work commute in heavy traffic.

I wasn't real impressed. It didn't get to deep.

Great

I've listened to all of the tracks on this CD at least twice. The tracks are only a few minutes long so you can easily listen to the track even if you only have a 5 to 10 minute commute. At times, certain tracks speak to me and I listen to them 2 or 3 times during my commute. The devotion itself is a male voice reading a specific text and providing some devotional type thoughts. The background is simple and easy to listen to. No rush or need to concentrate on every word so that you don't miss the context. It's easy to follow and helps to keep me focused after my morning devotions. I would not use this as a replacement for consistent time in the word and prayer each morning however. My favorite track is "Glory just around the corner". That is an amazing perspective for anyone who is going through trials or loss. These words were very encouraging to me. Take the CD home and burn it to your smartphone or ipod. You can easily listen to a track in 5 minutes.

Came on time, purchased for my son who is a christian Mailman to read as he is on his route.
