How To Grow Your Own Dish Garden

Synopsis

Even with a very small area it is possible to grow a garden and have some color on display. Cacti and succulents make wonderful displays, they are very easy to take care of and can be moved around your patio to any place you wish. These hardy little gardens are also perfect for gifts. You can build them in no time at all and place them inside or outdoors. Once you've made one, you will be on the lookout for other dish ideas to make more of them!
