John R. W. Stott (1921-2011) has been known worldwide as a preacher, evangelist and communicator of Scripture. For many years he served as rector of All Souls Church in London, where he carried out an effective urban pastoral ministry. A leader among evangelicals in Britain, the United States and around the world, Stott was a principal framer of the landmark Lausanne Covenant (1974). His many books have sold millions of copies around the world and in dozens of languages. Stott's best-known work, Basic Christianity, has sold two million copies and has been translated into more than 60 languages. Other titles include The Cross of Christ, Understanding the Bible, The Contemporary Christian, Evangelical Truth, Issues Facing Christians Today, The Incomparable Christ, Why I Am a Christian and Through the Bible Through the Year, a daily devotional. He has also written eight volumes in The Bible Speaks Today series of New Testament expositions. Whether in the West or in the Two-Thirds World, a hallmark of Stott's ministry has been expository preaching that addresses the hearts and minds of contemporary men and women. Stott was honored by Time magazine in 2005 as one of the "100 Most Influential People in the World" and was named in the Queen's New Years Honours list as Commander of the Order of the British Empire. In 1969, Stott founded the Langham Trust to fund scholarships for young evangelical leaders from the Majority World. He then founded the Evangelical Literature Trust, which provided books for students, pastors and theological libraries in the Majority World. These two trusts continued as independent charities until 2001, when they were joined as a single charity: the Langham Partnership. Langham's vision continues today to see churches in the Majority World equipped for mission and growing to maturity in Christ through nurturing national movements for biblical preaching, fostering the creation and distribution of evangelical literature, and enhancing evangelical theological education.

My group are all working and have children so they do not have much time to do a study each month. This is a great study. I highly recommend the Lifeguide Bible Studies. Each chapter has good questions that inspire. This is the third study book my group has done.

The "Sermon on The Mount" study provides a lot of thought provoking questions and background info with, room to expand! My group is really enjoying it and have said that it has taught them things they never knew. It is well written and allows the Minister or Facilitator to explore the needs of their particular group. Thank you for this wonderful study!

bought this book for our sunday school I really the studied

This is my first book teaching out of. Each lesson starts off the same way. A brief introduction followed by sample question to get the theme of the lesson started. Each lesson has about 10 to 12 questions with a application question at the end . Ive since moved on to use numerous lifeguide study books.

John Stott is an excellent and a well balanced teacher.

our group is really enjoying this series, we are about 1/2 way thru at this time.

The sermon on the mount is a great guide and facilitator for discussion on the Sermon on the Mount. The questions are well written and encourage group discussion. John Stott's commentary on the sermon on the mount is a very helpful tool.
