Tokyo (and Japan) - Lots Of Practical Tips And Information For First-time Visitors

Synopsis

This short book won't tell you about all the beautiful or fascinating places to go in Japan. Instead, it tells you (the first-time visitor to Tokyo or Japan) the REALLY useful information - topics include: - Getting out of the airport, Money, Phones, Trains, Japan Rail pass, Bullet trains, Toilets, Japanese Behavior and Manners, Driving a rental car in Japan, and lots more. At the end, there is a summary list of important things you should do (or at least think about doing) before leaving for Japan, and also there is a list of weblinks which you can access for more information on many topics. These are the tips and bits of practical information about traveling in Japan that will save you time, maybe save you some money, and certainly lower your anxiety level.
