Hanna Halfblood: A YA Fantasy Tale

Synopsis

Blood binds us all. As a deckhand to a merchant ship, Hanna Halfblood is no stranger to the art of magical combat. Striving to join the ranks of the elite fighters who defend against boarding pirates, Hanna sees no better future for herself than that of a fighter. But when Thorodd Stoneblood, her grandfather, is killed by a mysterious assassin, Hanna discovers that her own life is bound to a fate she couldn't have imagined. Faced with the understanding of an unknown past and a coven of power hungry witches who will stop at nothing to see her dead, Hanna struggles to overcome the adversities of a magical world she never knew existed. With the tide of danger rising around her and the driving need to uncover the truth of why blood was spilled at her door, Hanna discovers that it won't be enough to be a warrior. In order to survive, she will have to become something more. Can Hanna uncover the truth of a mysterious new enemy? Or will her legacy end in the same manner as the Stoneblood lines always do in bloodshed? Hanna Halfblood is the first installment of an incredible YA Fantasy series that will lead you into a rich world of magic and wonder. If you like Throne of Glass by Sarah J Maas you will love the whole Halfblood series by Robyn Wideman.

Excellent job nonstop action keeps you turning page's wondering what happens next.Great read excellent story telling.Keep the books coming.Ordering the next book.

Story line is really great and flows nicely. The characters caught me off guard at first, thank you for correcting me Robyn.Sam

A very good story but needs both parts to get the full impact

Really enjoyed the book, will read again

Was a great story except where the grandfather dies. The reason I write that is because in Nathan's story, the last book released, he met Hanna and went to go see grandfather. She also knew about spirit stones and how to make them. So, all I wish is that the author would go back and see what he already wrote or if this book came out BEFORE Dark Tidings, he should have known what he had written for Hanna's book. So, yes, good story, poorly thought out.Update: I was so completely wrong. I totally got the names wrong. So, great story, Hanna is awesome and you really need to read this book. Thank you to Robyn for replying, I really appreciate it.

Hanna halfblood is a great character she is young and beautiful, smart and fast. Having magic is something but learning how to use it is something different. Knowing the struggle that Hanna has to pass at so young age makes this book great all in all. This story is different and refreshing, I definitely recommended I think many kids and adults can enjoy a book like this one. I'm waiting for the translation in Spanish for my niece, she will definitely love it.

Hanna Halfblood the first I have read from this author. An action packed adventure. A revenge quest for wrongdoings to her family. Proves the fact there is always something more to learn. Thoroughly enjoyable read. Can't wait to read more from this author.

Fun YA book about a young girl raised as a warrior who finds out about magic when her grandfather dies. The story is Well written and told from the female protagonist point of view which is unusual in ya literature.
