Cards so not what I expected. I've been searching for a deck that I can relate to as a woman of African descent. This deck did nothing but further discourage me from my search. I guess the illustrator assumed that the center of this African religion was white deities... Very disappointed.

The book is all English which is great; the original was not. The cards are colorful but not of real great quality. It would be a study in progress should I want to read with this deck. But I am a collector so happy to have it.

I love the detail, the artistry and the book. While I haven't fully gotten to the meat of the book, it is a welcomed addition to my life and I hope to utilize them for myself soon.

These Tarot cards are absolutely beautiful! This is my first time studying Tarot and the book that comes with it is very helpful.

Beautiful! Got this for a good friend. She loved it and can identify with it.

My deck arrived with two "Message from Air" cards and is missing the "Message from Fire" card.

This deck is awful. While the book is really good, the deck is a mess. From gnomes to Caucasian Greek Gods and Goddesses, it's either not about the Orishas or about them in the shallowest way possible. Then it only depicts darker figures in negative situations. I've never seen anyone do a Celtic deck in such a disrespectful way so why anyone thought this was ok, I don't know. This is the first and only deck I've ever thrown away. Nobody needs this mess.

My friend absolutely loved this cards. They are bright and pretty. Great product.
