Marian Potter wrote the classic Little Golden Book The Little Red Caboose, published in 1953. It has never been out of print. Kathy Wilburn is an illustrator with a classic technique and style. She has worked on a number of extremely popular children's books and magazines. Wilburn went to the Rhode Island School of Design and previously worked for Hallmark Cards before settling in as an illustrator.

My son loves this book. It's got great train and countryside pictures, very colorful with an easy to follow story. It also has a good meaning. It's a bedtime favorite.

This is an older classic book that I really loved reading to my son. I am buying it again to pass along to my new niece.

I grew up on the golden books and I had to buy it for my granddaughter and she just loves it. Thank you.

My son loves Trains and he loves this story, it is one of his bedtime books. I love little golden books they are the best and they are inexpensive. So we can build up our collection without hurting our pockets.

A great little book. Used it for a shower card in place of a baby shower card.

Gift to our new great grandson.

given as present loves books

Great condition and what a wonderful classic for children
