Customer Reviews

Carl F. Luckey, writer and researcher, produced the original COLLECTING ANTIQUE BIRD DECOYS AND DUCK CALLS, revising and adding to it several times. Russel E. Lewis is a Michigan college professor and author of a fishing lure history and collecting book. He is a longtime decoy and fishing lure dealer and collector. Russell farms and raises registered Percheron horses, sheep, and chickens on the family farm in Evart, Michigan with his wife Wendy.

A very well-researched book, this is definately one for the collector. This book's true value lies in its value guides and background information, making for facinating reading. Unfortunately, the photography is only average, and mostly black and white (there is a middle section of 63 colored pages).

Thank you.

Here is good and basic information that should help you sort out whatever you are researching about Ducks. This is not a Bible but a guide so you may need other information. I would have preferred if the decoys had been listed with values.

One of the better reference books out there on decoys and duck calls. Worth buying!

not as much on call as I hoped

Gave this book to a good friend who is a collector and can say nothing negative, only rant on how great it is!

a very good resource on historic bird decoys. a lot of good material.

Excellent book for identification of the more popular American carvers, and basic values. Not much more information than the second issue.
