Customer Reviews

Good songs and durable book. Hard to keep open to page while playing. I use a chip clip to keep to keep the pages from turning on me.

Like everyone said- really really bad title.And yes, get it bound.

Very fun and easy to play.

Nicely arranged and just my speed to play and not practice first.

Good songs, but the music is too challenging for me.

Everything I've used so far from this series has been very accurate (correct keys, correct notes etc) You might assume that is always the case with sheet music. But sadly I've learned it's the exception. My only complaint (and it's a minor one) is this accuracy comes at a price. Several pages for each song even if it's only 3 chords and the melody repeats itself.

Got this for my son who is learning piano, to have interesting music to learn from. He's "a beginner" so this is a good book, that isn't too challenging. Some of the songs are decent enough and it's enjoyable to play/listen to. Some of the music is terrible and doesn't sound very much like the "melody" of the songs. Overall, for the price, it's worth the buy. Especially if you want music that isn't too difficult to pick up and play from.

As a new piano player I am enjoying trying to play some of my favorite pop songs. As far as the music content goes, it's great.Unfortunately the book is bound very poorly for use at a piano. It is way too stiff and nearly impossible to stay open without heroic efforts. I sometimes scan what I want to play and print it just so I can actually use the music while at the piano.Good content that is seriously dinged by poor design.
