Customer Reviews

My 8 year old daughter received this book as an Easter gift from a couple that are like Grandparents to her. As it's not on I have no idea how they acquired it, but she loves it. I love it too. Besides being a very relatable story, it weaves in Biblical solutions to Abby's fears. Throughout the book, there are sections called "Your Turn" which asks the reader to take their understanding to a deeper level and personalize the learning. For example one of the "Your Turn" challenges starts with , "Do you have a backpack of worries weighing you down?" provides a thought, and verse and ends with "Draw a picture of your worries in Jesus's hands." I found myself wanting to do the challenges with her. It's targeted to kids ages 6-12 and that's accurate. Would love to see more books like this for this age group.
