Customer Reviews

Montana contains more than twelve million acres of undeveloped roadless lands. These areas, from favorites like Glacier National Park and the Bob Marshall Wilderness, to the lesser-known Italian Peaks or the Terry Badlands. This guide includes descriptions of non-motorized recreation in 10 million acres of Montana's wildest backcountry.

I you hike in Montana this is the book to have. I've lived in Montana all my life and I used this book all the time.
