Customer Reviews

This daily calendar was not entertaining. I was hoping for a daily puzzle, but many of the days are simply read a list of numbers or words, cover them up, and see if you can remember them. It was pretty disappointing, I already ordered a different calendar.

I love trivia and brain games but this product was a disappointment. There are only a set number of types of games... they just repeat with new numbers/twists throughout the entire year. For example, every few days you get back to the same type of brain teaser, just new information is in there. I would have expected new games every day, in general. Maybe SOME repeats. I use this as scrap paper now because it was not enjoyable.

So far this year, this calendar has been stupid. The "brain games" consist of things like "memorize this person's food order" or read the letters and try to recite them in reverse. Not really a challenge or a puzzle so much as a waste of money. Very disappointed.

Regular desk sized calendar of average stock with mind games. Excellent for building new neuron pathways.

not very challenging and they repeat the same 5 or 6 games over and over. you get what you pay for Bought for a present and they loved it.

I could make up better puzzles sitting here at my desk. Not to mention the bad puzzles are simply repeated 13 times each over the course of the year. I didn't want to do the bad puzzle the first time, and certainly not 12 more times the rest of the year. Buy the MENSA puzzle calendar--WAY better. This one already went into recycling.

I like the daily challenge, but only giving this 4 stars because the "games" are repeated each week. I really liked that the Jeopardy version has something different each and everyday.
