White Belt Kakuro: 150 Puzzles (Martial Arts Puzzles Series)

Synopsis

Kakuro are language-free number puzzles that use pure logic and require just simple arithmetic to solve. This book contains 150 kakuros. It takes cue from the belt colors in martial arts: white is for novices, green for intermediates, brown for very accomplished players, and black for those consummate experts who crave a challenge.

"'Sudoku was great, kakuro is better' The Guardian"

I am pretty adept at both kenken and suduko so I thought this might be a great new challenge. It is definitely a challenge but is much harder than I thought it would be. I'm learning very slowly with this one.

Little harder problems than I thought would be in the book labeled "White Belt"

I love the White Belt Kakuro books. I try to keep my brain active in old age. I am not good at the puzzles, so I repeat the same book, over and over. Each time it's new. I have one puzzle book in the bathroom. The book is perfect to take to dr's offices when I know there will be waiting. It is small enough to fit in my purse, the print is large enough for my eyes to read easily.

Some of these puzzles are harder than others, but with a little patience they are all fun!

Five stars. Please send another .

I buy this series all the time. The paper is high quality, bright white. The book is sturdy and holds up to repeated opening. Comes in various difficulty levels.

Bored of Sudoku. Really enjoying the additional logic of these puzzles. Have done about 10-15 of these puzzles before in a mixed puzzle book and this book is a great level to go into. Paper is nice and holds up to my erasings! Enjoy :)

This is the third time I've gotten this book because the first time was slightly too difficult, the second time a little easier--meaning you can improve. The layout and size are perfect and there are lots of puzzles. It was difficult to find the exact level that is not too easy or too hard for me but this is perfect.
